

PROFILE

Gary Hickingbotham Leadership Management Australia, Victoria

Gary Hickingbotham joined Leadership Management Australia (LMA) in 1984 and has been instrumental in the development of LMA's unique system of delivery in achieving measurable outcomes for clients. He assisted in the development of the facilitation model, established LMA's internal development process for facilitators and was instrumental in LMA becoming a Registered Training Organisation.

Gary has been recognised on many occasions including Facilitator of the Year, Licensee of the Year and Sales Leader of the Year. He is one of only a handful of people in Australia with LMA that have been awarded prestigious membership of the "Leadership Council" by Leadership Management International.

Having conducted over 2500 workshops, seminars and key note presentations and coached over 600 LMA participants, Gary is able to inspire people to develop new positive attitudes, enhance on the job performance and develop essential leadership and management capabilities for leading businesses and teams in a rapidly changing business environment.

Recently, Gary has worked with the Cotton On Foundation in Uganda in developing local staff in the areas of leadership and management enabling the effective roll out of projects focussing on education, infrastructure, sustainability and health
