

Roger Crowhurst Leadership Management Australia, New South Wales

Roger Crowhurst joined Leadership Management Australia (LMA) in 1996 and established LMA's first regional office, in Newcastle.

The opportunity to establish the organisation in a vibrant regional city was very challenging whilst also exciting. It gave them the opportunity to work with some great businesses and also support the LMA network nationally.

Roger is extremely passionate about LMA- he thrives on working with organisations, developing and growing their people and enjoying the satisfaction of the fantastic results and return on investment that is created.

Roger is a training and development industry professional who has coached over 1000 participants and facilitated courses for more than 1100 participants, since joining LMA.

Known for his strong level of discipline, effective communication skills and genuine desire for people, Roger is able to utilise his talents to bring the very best out in people and their performance.
