LEADERSHIP MANAGEMENT AUSTRALASIA

About Chris Gaskell

I'm Chris, I work with LMA as a Business Performance Manager. This role is a bit of a dream role for me, in that I went through some pretty life changing leadership training with LMA in 2013.

LMA brought out in me my natural coaching/mentoring leadership style and validated, among many other things, my goal setting approach to team performance. I am driven by wanting to people to work for the best teams they've ever worked in, for the best boss's they've ever had.

I want to help create the leaders that get talked about in team members retirement speeches.

I enjoy working with people to challenge them, to get them to learn new things about themselves, to allow them to be the best version of themselves there's ever been.
